

Rules and Eligibility

Who Can Enter

The InSpire Awards are open to the following professionals based in the Raleigh-Durham (Fayetteville) Designated Market Area and east to the North Carolina coast (this includes the Greenville-New Bern-Washington and Wilmington markets):

- corporate communications and marketing communications teams
- public relations agencies
- public affairs firms
- investor relations agencies
- publicists
- nonprofits
- PR educational professionals
- students (see below for information on student submissions),
- government PR teams
- solo practitioners

Additionally, entries will be accepted for campaigns and tactics designed for execution in the above-mentioned region. (For example, if you or your organization is located in Charlotte, but you created a campaign for a company in Raleigh or Manteo in 2018, you can submit that work for an award.)

Entry Eligibility

Entries must be for work conducted between January 1, 2019 and December 31, 2019. Some of the work must have occurred during this period. Complete programs, or programs near the end of completion, when evaluation against initial objectives can be measured, tend to have a better chance of winning.

Students

All students currently enrolled in a college or university are invited to enter. All entries must be registered online to be considered. Bateman entries are acceptable, but other entries are welcome! Please note that if you are submitting a Bateman entry, it should be clearly noted as such. Student projects may also be submitted by a teacher or advisor, or students may also submit an entry as a group.
